WARREN'S RATTLING SKELETON started to fade into oblivion at 10:30 P. M. Monday when a huge crane and bulldozer operated by Emory Nelson and Ernest Ellberg cut through the remaining yards of earth separating the old Mill Race from its new channel, and the backed-up water in the race flowed back into Conewango Creek. The Times-Mirror picture story starts with a photograph of the land south of the island road, left, after the underbrush had been cleared away preparatory to digging the channel. Center, the crane digs out the last obstruction and the Mill Race flows into its new channel. Picture on right, the wide channel from the old race across the "badlands" into the Conewango at an entirely new outlet which is far from the old outlet near Hickory street bridge. Little water is flowing through the Mill Race and its new channel today because a level with the dam has been established. A new spillway is being constructed immediately south of the Pennsylv-

vania avenue bridge, and the old Mill Race has been completely dammed at the point where the new channel starts. No water at all enters the old race from a point opposite East street on down to the Allegheny and the water lying therein is expected to dry up within a matter of days. Property owners along Water street have already started a move to have the old Mill Race entirely filled from the gates above the Conewango dam to the new channel.

SEIZURE BILL APPROVED BY SENATE GROUP

Washington (AP)—The Senate Labor Committee today approved the Humphrey Bill to permit President Truman to seize the strike-scarred steel industry.

Along with this measure, sponsored by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.), the group also approved a broader bill, proposed by Sen. Morse (R-Ore.). It would allow the president to seize any defense industry—subject to congressional veto—to avert a strike.

Both the Humphrey and Morse proposals were rejected by the Senate earlier this month when offered as amendments to legislation continuing wage-price controls.

Their approval by the labor committee as separate bills means they will now go to the Senate calendar.

However, it is debatable whether the Senate will agree to consider them again.

In the windup of the earlier scrap, the Senate voted to request that President Truman use the Taft-Hartley law in the steel strike.

A provision of that law permits the administration to seek an 80-day court injunction forbidding the strike to continue.

However, Truman told a news conference last week that he is considering use of the Taft-Hartley Act although he questioned whether a court order would get the strikers back on the job.

The steel seizure bill proposed by Humphrey would authorize the president to seize the plants, and change the workers' wages and working conditions, but would not allow the government to make a (Turn to Page Three)

Mutual Aid Demonstration By Volunteer Firemen Provides Thrill for Crowd at Sheffield

Fire-fighting equipment estimated to be worth $280,000 was used by 250 Warren and Chautauque county active volunteer firemen in a mutual aid demonstration at Sheffield, Monday night, which Gurney Ball, secretary of the Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association, said today was strong proof of the value of such cooperation in Civil Defense.

With 28 streams of water being played on the old athletic field at one time, it was estimated that 7,360 gallons of water per minute were being pumped for an hour and a half, Chautauque county for a half hour. A crowd of approximately 2,000 watched the firemen at work.

Warren county departments from Columbus, Youngsville, Tidoute, Pleasant township, Sugar Grove, North Warren, Clarendon, Russell and Sheffield were joined by Chautauque county departments from Lakewood, Ellington, Panama, Ashville, Celoron and Fluvanna. The New York units were alerted through their central radio station in the Court House at Mayville and reached Sheffield just 56 minutes after the alarm was given at 8:30 p. m. The Lakewood unit brought its radio truck and was in constant communication with Mayville. Progress of the run, the action at Sheffield, and the possibility of a serious outbreak of fire in Chautauque county was information available at all times through this hook-up.

Upon arrival at the Pennsylvania line, the Chautauque county trucks were escorted through Warren, assisted by Warren Borough police, and on to Sheffield. Most of the Warren county equipment (Turn to Page Three)

Zoning Board Of Adjustment Plans Meeting on Friday

Members of the Warren Zoning Board of Adjustment said today they had heard rumors that an application for a change of classification of Fourth avenue would come before them at an advertised meeting called for 11 a. m. Friday when the location of the new school in Conewango avenue at Jefferson street is considered.

However, the position of the Board of Adjustment is somewhat in doubt as regards action on this sort of matter. Anything which comes before this group must be advertised 10 days in advance, as has been the meeting in regard to the school. Also, Chairman P. C. Ostergard pointed out that after the borough had been zoned, the actual Zoning Board was discharged of its duties. Any action for an exemption in Fourth avenue, which would enable the Loblaw Company to erect a large new retail grocery, or reclassification of the area for the same reason, would require action by a new Zoning Board or by Council itself, the latter action being more likely in order.

The Friday meeting, to be held in Council Chambers, is called for action on the application of the Warren Borough School Authority for a variance in the building line of the new school on the Jefferson street side. The zoning ordinance calls for 20 feet between sidewalk and building while the architect's plans call for but 11, hence the appeal for a variance. There seemed to be little doubt today that the appeal would be granted. At a recent meeting of the Zoning Board (Turn to Page Three)

VOTE AGAINST DELAY

Washington (AP)—Pennsylvania's Republican Senators, James H. Duff and Edward Martin, voted against delaying action on the McCarran amendment to bar the President from seizing private property without the specific consent of Congress. The Senate roll call vote yesterday, 42-32, deferred action on the amendment.

New Parking Authority Discusses Plans To Make Use of Reclaimed Island Land

Temporary organization of the newly created Warren Borough Parking Authority was effected, Monday night, at a meeting in the office of Borough Secretary L. M. McConnell, and actual incorporation of the authority will now be expedited by Borough Solicitor S. Knox Harper.

No outside engineer will be engaged by the Authority for a study of parking conditions and needs in Warren. It was the consensus of opinion that this should be undertaken by the Board itself. In the general discussion of the deplorable parking conditions existing in Warren, the potential use of the Nelson and Ellberg property, now being developed on the island, was felt to be the actual answer to the problem and the new Authority plans to confer with Nelson and Ellberg as soon as it is in a position to act. All members of the new Authority, Nat Drake, H. B. Pettit, W. C. Fuelhart, Ted Berline and Ray Johnson, were present as were Burgess William Crosssett, Council President W. E. Rice, Borough Manager McConnell, Solicitor Harper, and two members of the council's public safety committee which fathered the ordinance creating the Authority, Chairman J. G. Smith and George Geracimos. Mr. Harper explained the incorporation and ultimate operation of the Board, and said actual incorporation through Harrisburg will require about 30 days. Mr. Drake was elected temporary chairman and after the incorporation there will be a meeting to name a president, secretary and treasurer.

Solution of Korean Political Dispute Appears Possible

Pusan, Korea (AP)—A compromise solution to South Korea's bitter political feud appeared to be shaping up today.

Prime Minister Chang Paik Sang was reported to have won support for a compromise plan from middle-of-the-road assemblymen and opponents of President Syngman Rhee.

Details were not divulged. Assemblyman Oh Sung Whan, a member of the group trying to end Korea's month-long political crisis, said P. M. Shinick and other opposition leaders have promised to support the compromise.

There was some talk that the Assembly would recess for a week to permit lawmakers to reach agreement.

This development came as 500 rural supporters of Rhee squatted on rice straw mats in front of Rhee's house, refusing to eat until the Assembly adopts his proposal for a popular presidential election and a two-house congress. The hunger strike began more than 24 hours ago.

Korea's Constitution provides for the election of a president by the assembly one month before the incumbent's term expires. Rhee's term was supposed to expire July 24, with yesterday the deadline for an election.

ACHESON AND ANTHONY EDEN HAVE MEETING

London (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden discussed their problems in Europe and the Middle East behind closed doors today.

A spokesman said the western diplomatic chiefs made a general review of the situation in those two areas in a two hour meeting this morning. They plan to resume their talks this afternoon. Acheson will meet the heads of British diplomatic missions in the Middle East who are winding up a separate four day conference here.

The Acheson-Eden talks are a prelude to a Big Three foreign ministers' meeting on Friday when French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman will join in the discussions.

Acheson and his wife had lunch with Prime Minister and Mrs. Churchill.

Acheson will leave tonight for Oxford, where he will receive an honorary degree of doctor of civil law from Oxford University.

He will return to London for further talks Thursday.

George E. Kennan, the U. S. Ambassador in Moscow, will fly to London from Germany on that day to meet with Eden.

The main problem facing the United States, Britain and France in Europe at the moment is their reply to the latest Russian note on a peace treaty for Germany.

In the Middle East, Britain has been anxious to set up a new defense grouping revolving around the Suez Canal Zone.

Two Sisters Drown In Creek Near Corry

Corry (AP)—Two sisters drowned in French Creek, 16 miles southwest of here, as other children and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McStraw looked on helplessly.

McStraw said he ran to his car for a rope to throw to Muriel Pangborn, 13, and her sister, Rose Marie, 9, yesterday when the children called for help. But he said they disappeared from the surface before he got back.

The victims were nieces of the McStraws. They had taken their own three children and four Pangborn children on the swimming party. All were from nearby Watford. McStraw said the other children stayed near the shore but the two victims, who were good swimmers, apparently tried to swim across the 50-foot wide creek.

Famous Army Band Featuring Two Players from Warren May Appear Here Late in August

That the famous Dixie Band of the 31st Infantry Division, now stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind., and of which two local boys are members, may play in Warren sometime during the last week of August appeared as a definite possibility today upon receipt of a letter by the Times-Mirror from Major General A. G. Paxton, USA, commanding general.

Nick Geracimos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust A. Geracimos, 12 Hertzel street, and Ed Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Wood, 103 Willoughby avenue, are Army musicians in this band which is probably the most famous band in the U. S. Army today.

In reply to a communication from the Times-Mirror, Major General Paxton wrote that it would be possible for the Dixie Band to play in Warren either just before August 24 or just after August 27 as it is to play in New York City between those dates for the American Legion convention.

"If this is acceptable to you, I shall be very pleased to have you advise me and I will try to work out the details," wrote the General, and continued:

"I would like very much to have the band play in Warren due to the fact that both Corporals Geracimos and Wood are from your city. Both of these men are excellent musicians and have contributed to a marked degree to the success of this well-known municipal organization."

Major General Paxton expressed deep appreciation for Warren's interest in the band, and was assured by wire today that the band will be most welcome in Warren on whichever date is selected.

Taft Supporters Reported Behind Move To Name MacArthur for Vice President

By The Associated Press With two weeks to go for the Republican convention, all 1,206 delegates named and the top contenders scrapping for presidential-nominating votes, a new note sounded today: MacArthur for vice president.

Such a move reportedly was under discussion by some supporters of Ohio's Sen. Robert Taft, a front-runner with Gen. Dwight Eisenhower in the GOP presidential race.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur repeatedly has said he is not a candidate for any office. But some Taft followers are understood to believe MacArthur would accept second place on the party's ticket if Taft got No. 1.

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee called last night for a Democratic platform plank favoring an end to filibustering in the Senate. This talking-to-death is a frequent device of Southern lawmakers in knocking off civil rights legislation.

His closest rival in the Democratic race, Georgia Sen. Richard Russell, was on a vote-hunting expedition in the West. At Phoenix, Ariz., last night Russell advocated government seizure of the strike-bound steel industry under authority of the Selective Service Act.

Eisenhower and Taft were driving hard in the stretch for delegate votes.

Taft picked up 10 more Illinois votes yesterday, when the last of the total 1,206 GOP delegates were named. These gave Taft a total of 477 delegates in the Associated Press tally, against 393 for Eisenhower.

Scranton, Pa. (AP)—A truck rammed a pole and overturned on a curve in nearby Dunmore today, killing the driver and injuring his helper. Police said the dead man was Vernon Post, 36, Elmer, N. J. His nephew, Austin Post, 18, Hurfville, N. J., was taken to Scranton State Hospital in a serious condition.

Three ARE KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

Kennett Square (AP)—Three people were killed when their car skidded and struck a culvert on Route 7, a mile west of this Chester county community.

Killed yesterday were: William M. Schnorr, 70, his wife, Florence, 72, both of Nottingham, Pa., and Mrs. Belva E. Lynch, of Upper Darby, near Philadelphia.

ACTION ALONG BATTLEFRONT IS INCREASING

Seoul, Korea (AP)—Air Force and Navy fighter-bombers teamed up again today to hammer four of the five Communist hydro-electric plants smashed yesterday in the biggest air raid of the Korean War.

Nearly 200 Navy planes from big fleet carriers off Korea's East coast joined Air Force planes from dozens of Korean bases to hit the shattered generating stations for the second straight day, Navy headquarters announced.

None of the planes returned to the smoldering Suhoi power plants just south of the Yalu River boundary. But the Air Force said F-84 Thunderjets "completed destruction" of two power stations near Changlin Reservoir and two on the Songchon River in Eastern Korea.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported increasing patrol action along the 155-mile battlefield today. One Allied patrol battled for almost two hours with a Red unit west of Chorwon, the scene of bloody fighting during the past two weeks.

About 20 Red troops were killed, the Army said.

As Allied experts studied gun film to evaluate destruction done by yesterday's big raid on North Korean power plants, there were strong hints that more Red targets are marked for attack.

LIFTS BAN ON COLOR TELEVISION SETS

Washington (AP)—The government today lifted its ban on the manufacture of color television sets for home and theatre use.

The National Production Authority NPA replaced the outright prohibition with an order permitting manufacture by firms which can prove that color TV will not obstruct their defense output.

However, Administrator Henry H. Fowler who signed the order, said he expected that few makers of radio and TV sets for homes would be able to qualify because most are deeply in defense work.

Second Anniversary of the Start of Bloody Hostilities in Korea Recalled

Seoul, Korea (AP)—Russian-built tanks rumbled southward across Parallel 38 in the predawn darkness two years ago tomorrow and plunged Korea into a bloody, bitter war that has become a stalemate.

The naked aggression against the United Nations-sponsored Republic of South Korea by the Soviet Union's puppet North "Korean Peoples Republic" began a destructive, see-saw struggle that has left this Asiatic peninsula in ruins. Eighteen members of the United Nations and hordes of Chinese Communists have become involved in the war that has produced no winner. Casualties total more than two million. More than 10 million civilians are homeless.

U. N. troops have suffered 419,456 casualties, mostly South Koreans, but including 108,971 Americans. The Chinese and North (Turn to Page Three)

Sugar Grove Church Having Centennial Program This Week

Methodists and their friends of this entire section are gathering in Sugar Grove this week for the centennial celebration of the parish which started out as an outpost of the Harmony Circuit, as early as 1830.

The 100th anniversary celebration of the Methodist congregation gets under way with Historical Night, 8:00 this evening, when the speaker will be Rev. E. D. Hulise, of Knox, and the host choir will have special music.

At the same hour on Wednesday, a special musical program will be presented by the choir of First Lutheran church, Jamestown, directed by Miss Ebba Goranson. The 50 chorists will be heard in a variety of vocal selections, interspersed with instrumental numbers. Serving as the committee for this particular function will be Mrs. Harold Barnes, Mrs. Nell Scott, Mrs. Walter Warner, Mrs. Robert Conklin. A social time, with refreshments, will follow the concert, to which all are cordially invited.

Thursday will be Fellowship

Night, with the Rev. Harold Knapenberger, former pastor of Grace church and now in Franklin, as guest speaker. There will also be special music and neighboring pastors will bring greetings.

Youth Night is the designation for Friday, when the service will again be held at 8:00 o'clock, and the speaker will be the new pastor, Rev. Palmer N. Taylor, assigned to the congregation last Sunday at Erie Conference sessions in Meadville. Rev. Taylor is no newcomer to this area, having served the Russell church for a time, leaving there in the fall of 1948 for Conneaut Lake, from where he is transferred to Sugar Grove.

Concluding on Sunday, anniversary services will include the 10:00 a. m. church school period; 11:00 a. m. worship, with Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke as the speaker and special music by the Sugar Grove choir; 12:30 p. m., dinner in the church basement; 3:00 p. m. worship service, with Rev. Wayne Furman, reappointed superintendent of the Jamestown District, bringing the message.

Political Meetings Are Scheduled By Young Republicans

The Young Republican Club of Warren county, which is starting its second year of operation since reorganization a year ago, has scheduled a series of political meetings between now and election on November 4.

The first event will be held tomorrow night (Wednesday) at Wilder Field where all members and friends are invited to a picnic supper to be followed by an address by Judge Allison D. Wade. Judge Wade's address will deal with the campaign issues of the coming election and is particularly timely and important for voters.

The picnic is a family affair and the committee emphasizes that children are invited and welcome to attend. Members and anyone else who wishes to join the club are urged to come in groups and plan their own supper. Only coffee will be furnished by the committee.

The Young Republican meeting is scheduled to start at 6:30 tomorrow evening rain or shine and the program to follow will be brief. Membership in the organization is open to all young persons in the county and the committee hopes a large number will turn out.

Betty Lee Observes 14th Anniversary.

Fourteen years ago this coming October, in the autumn of the year the Betty Lee Shop was founded at 312 Second avenue, a corduroy suit could be bought for $3.98, as shown right in a picture of an advertisement in The Times-Mirror on October 11, 1933.

In observance of its fourteenth birthday, Betty Lee will give away a circus ticket to the person who brings in the oldest Betty Lee ad., this one having been found by Ann Simmons of 4 West Wayne street.

A youngster, Alvin Baird, 127 Conewango avenue, brought in a 1939 advertisement, carefully folded in a little basket, and said "Well, here it is." He had found that old ad. while rummaging in basement. The contest is on through Saturday of this week.

There are several other contests being conducted by Betty Lee in connection with the fourteenth anniversary, circus tickets having been offered to those who bring in sales slips 10 years or older, circus tickets for those who come close to guessing the number of peanuts in the Betty Lee window, and circus tickets for those who open new accounts. Also, a free circus ticket is given each day to the fourteenth customer in the store.

Four old sales slips have been brought in, two by Beatrice Hamilton of Youngville, and two by Mrs. Edward Males of Warren RD 1. A circus ticket also is offered to every person whose birthday is the same as that of Betty Lee, June 14, 1933, but so far there has been but one entrant, John Charles Harrington, III, of 17 Brook street.

It is interesting to note that over 30 old Times-Mirror advertisements have been submitted in the old ad. contest.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

PLAY FOR ALL TRICKS IN TOTAL POINT GAME

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Each year many of the colleges in this country take part in a national intercollegiate bridge tournament. As a first step in the contest, the college boys and girls who take part play prepared hands that test their skill.

In the hand shown today, played by all of the contestants, declarer had to show his skill by playing for an extra trick. Extra tricks are not terribly important in a total point game, but it pays to try for them when no risk is involved.

South is expected to ruff the second round of clubs and draw one round of trumps. There is no difficulty in making the contract since declarer cannot lose more than one spade, one diamond, and one club. The only problem is how to play for an eleventh trick.

South should lead a low spade from his hand and finesse dummy's ten. East wins with the king of spades and returns a diamond, but South should go up with the ace of diamonds since it is very unlikely that East has led from the king.

South continues by leading to the ace, enters his hand by ruffing a club and ruffs a low spade in dummy. Since the queen of spades falls on this trick, South's jack becomes established. He can therefore discard dummy's diamond on the jack of spades, thus assuring 11 tricks.

This year's 168 colleges in 43 states took part in the intercollegiate contest. The championship was won by John T. Harris and Richard M. Sutton, of Rice Institute, Houston, Texas.

The big colleges, which have often won in the past, were this year denied even the pleasure of capturing second-place, since the runners-up were William F. Stolz, Jr., and John A. McElwain, of Middlebury College in Vermont.

Beautiful Prizes Await Celebration Queen and Court

Warren county lovelies will have a chance beginning tomorrow to look over some of the many prizes to be given to the Jaycees Fourth of July Celebration Queen and court.

Several of the gifts are to be on display in one of the windows of the Penselec Company, corner of Liberty street and Pennsylvania avenue, as the final week of entries comes to a close Friday. Other gifts will be listed on cards with the name of the donor.

The committee reports that several more entries have been received and takes this opportunity to remind interested young women between the ages of 17 and 21, that they have only three days in which to send in their names.

As previously stated, selection of the five girls eligible to become queen will be made Saturday night at eight o'clock. Following the program the five girls to represent the Celebration will be feted at the Youth Canteen where festivities will get under way with a dance at nine o'clock. The dance will be open to the public with only a nominal charge being made.

From the five girls to be picked Saturday evening, one will receive the Queen title at ceremonies next Thursday evening July 3rd, on the steps of the Municipal building. The other four girls of the court and the queen then begin two days and one night of fun and entertainment, as they preside over two parades, a drum corps competition, dance, along with breakfasts, dinners at some of Warren's favorite dining spots.

It will be a lively and wonderful week of fun for the five lucky girls, and one they will remember always.

Following are the gifts submitted to the committee to date:

Waxman Furniture store—Cedar chest.

J. C. Penney Co.—Three pairs nylon hose to the queen and one pair each to members of the court.

Turner Radio—Electric hair drier.

Jean Carol Hat Shop—Set of jewelry for the queen.

Darling Store—Parker '51 pen and pencil set.

Kinners—Pen and Pencil set, Betty Lee store—Gown.

Melzer-Wright Co.—Gown.

Barclay Furniture Store—Westinghouse Iron to the queen.

Kofod Studio—Eight by ten picture of queen; one-half dozen 5x7 prints to queen. One group picture each to members of the court.

Virg-Ann Flower Shop—Corsets.

Retta LaJoie—Hair wash and set for each of the five girls.

Murphy's store—Pair nylons for each of the five girls.

Hanna Motor Sales—21 inch overnight case for the queen.

Stein's—Gown.

Krege's—Hat and gloves for the queen.

Watt Office Supply—Matching set, scrap book and photograph album to be monogrammed after queen is chosen.

CELEBRATION NOTES

Tonight! Eight O'clock! At Legion Home! Celebration Committee meeting.

Jack Barr, general chairman, and Jaycee officials are hoping for a large turnout at the session tonight when many important matters must be discussed and decided upon.

Barr and his chief aide, Ben Kinnear, were in a huddle last evening going over parade plans. Twenty-two divisions are assured, and it remains to be decided whether or not it will be increased to 25 or 27, or to make units larger.

Those in charge reported today that a dozen floats have been entered with many other local and area industries and business places still contemplating to be represented. One local business man, phoned The Times-Mirror very early today regarding a float.

The "bleacher detail" has a busy week coming up. Crews will be recruited to bring seats from Wilder Field to be added to those already being erected at War Memorial Field. Watch for announcements, boys!

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings will be the busiest of the summer for Jaycee members.

The informal gathering of committee members and their wives, which has become one of the most enjoyable events in connection with the celebration will be held on the evening of July 3rd, and from this distance it looks like it will be the best ever, with a delightful surprise being arranged for those who attend.

Strings are out to encourage the Eagles White Battalion of Erie, one of the really fine and colorful marching units of the area, to appear in the parade on the Fourth. And there is reason to believe that one of the outstanding drum corp units in Buffalo will accept an invitation to be in Warren for the big day.

The Blackman Nash Inc., has taken over the project of furnishing the float upon which the queen and her court will ride in the parade on the Fourth and those who have seen blueprints of the vehicle say that it will outclass anything ever before seen in the section.

And that reminds us, there is a "Queen Story" on another page of this issue that should interest every eligible girl in and around Warren. The deadline for entries will be Friday at five o'clock, and many are being received. Just fill out the coupon appearing in this paper and bring or mail it to The Times-Mirror. It will reach the committee and be listed with the others.

The committee is receiving excellent cooperation from the Boy and Girl Scout officials, and indications are these two organizations will have large delegations in the parade.

New Challenge To U. N. Is Issued By Red Negotiators

Munsan, Korea (AP)—Communist truce negotiators today warned the United Nations that continued screening of prisoners at Koje Island may "extend the Korean War."

"You are taking dangerous steps which show that you do not hesitate to extend the Korean War," said North Korean Gen. Nam Il.

Maj Gen William K. Harrison replied, "We cannot and will not barter the right to freedom of any individual. We recognize the individual as possessed of free will, not a slave bound without choice to a lifetime of servitude."

About 45,000 prisoners on Koje are being questioned to learn whether they want to go home.

They are among prisoners who resisted screening last April when the U. N. got a "round figure" of 70,000 prisoners who want to be repatriated and some 100,000 who would fight being returned.

Allied refusal to repatriate any prisoner against his will is the main stumbling block to an armistice in Korea.

Nam's warning came during another brief no-progress session at hot, dusty Panmunjom.

Quarter Sessions Court Term Ends

The June term of quarter sessions court wound up yesterday with Judge Allison D. Wade assessing three sentences, hearing reports from three juveniles, and hearing a non-support case.

Russell Peck was fined $100 and costs and given 10 days in county jail under a plea of guilty to a charge of drunken driving. Randall Goodard, charged with contempt of court after causing a disturbance during an assault and battery hearing some time ago, was given a 90 day suspended sentence, placed on probation for one year, and ordered to pay the costs of prosecution. Goodard has served 46 days in county jail since ordered there by Judge Wade during the previous hearing.

Earl T. Rossmann of Warren pleading guilty to a charge of arson, was given a suspended sentence of six months in Allegheny county workhouse, placed on probation for period of two years, and fined $10 and costs.

Today and tomorrow, Judge Wade is presiding over the June term of divorce court with a total of 15 cases to be heard.

YMCA Fills Post Of Boys' Secretary

The executive committee of the local YMCA, through Chairman Roy L. Blodgett, announced this morning that Gordon E. Gillette, of Williamsport, has accepted a temporary position of boys' work secretary here, serving until the return of James Hengst, on active duty with the United States Navy.

Mr. Gillette has just graduated from Lycoming College at Williamsport and has been doing part-time work at the Williamsport "Y," mostly in the field of young men's and co-ed work.

He majored in social studies during his college work and was active in the College YMCA, in intra-mural basketball, tennis teams, the College A Cappella Choir, and the Dramatic Club.

Mr. Gillette will arrive in Warren next Monday, but will spend the first two days of his new assignment with the local association in a visit to Camp Sherwin on Lake Erie, where 74 of the local boys are enjoying ten days of camping.

The newcomer is single, and a member of the Methodist church, and his arrival in Warren will signal a renewal of the trips and group fun-programs which Jim Hengst has conducted for the boys during the past few summers.

union shop agreement, one of the major issues in the strike.

Under a union shop agreement, which the steel industry has stoutly resisted, all workers would have to join the Steelworkers' Union (CIO).

Moss's bill would allow seizure of any industry essential to national security to avert a strike, but would give Congress 10 days in which to veto the order. The seizure would run for 60 days only, unless Congress specifically voted to extend it.

Second Anniversary of Hostilities Recalled

Korean Reds killed, wounded or captured are reckoned at 1,623,404.

And now the conflict is almost where it began. Powerful land armies have remained more or less stable, for nearly a year, along a line stretching diagonally north-eastward from a few miles south of Parallel 38 in West Korea.

Until only a few days ago, both sides seemed awaiting the outcome of the latest year old impudently armistice talks at Panmunjom.

However, as the war's second anniversary drew near, Allied tanks and infantry were putting pressure on the Chinese in Western Korea and North Korea's vital hydro-electric plants were smashed in a mass air strike.

A U. S. defense department official in Washington said the military action seemed to be "the best way of breaking the deadlock at Panmunjom."

and carrier-based Navy planes which took part in the Korean war's biggest air attack showed the strike was virtually a 100 per cent success, the Air Force said.

An official spokesman said direct hits were registered on all five targets, and the world's fourth largest hydro-electric plant at Suifu was a "pile of junk." He described the 1,400 foot row of giant transformer and other equipment as a shambles.

Not one Communist jet challenged the attacking Allied planes, although Allied pilots said more than 200 swept-wing MIG-15s were parked on a Manchuria air base within sight of Suifu.

The Air Force said all of its planes returned safely. The Navy said one carrier-based plane was shot down by anti-aircraft fire and four others were hit, but no pilots were lost.

George Blackstone of Lakewood, field manager for the New York State Fire Bureau, and Raymond Hughes of Kiantone, Chautauque county Civil Defense coordinator, were interested participants.

Taft at Hershey for Meeting With Fine; Eisenhower Discusses Issues in Denver

Hershey (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio said today he does not believe the bombing of the Communist hydro-electric plants in Korea will lead to World War III.

"We should have done it long ago," he added.

Taft told a news conference he still believes that Manchurian bases of the Red armies in China can be attacked directly.

The senator came to this Pennsylvania resort town for a meeting with Gov. John S. Fine and a majority of the state's strategically placed 70 delegates to the GOP National Convention.

Taft covered a wide range of subjects in his regular morning news conference.

Denver (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today "I fervently hope" that a foreign policy plank can be written into the Republican platform which would be acceptable both to him and to Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

The general told an early morning news conference: "I don't want to see a bitter convention fight over this point."

This statement came after Eisenhower had pitched his campaign on a peace or war issue with Taft. He had grouped Taft among the nation's isolationists in a major foreign policy speech last night. A reporter asked if he was "trying to put Taft on the defensive" in the final stages of the campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Eisenhower replied, "No, no. I just believe that someone must preach the truth about these things."

Two Arrests Solve Bear Lake Break-Ins

Arrest of a 25-year-old Dayton, N. Y., man and a 14-year-old Dunkirk, N. Y., boy is expected to solve break-ins and damage to five buildings in the Bear Lake area.

The pair was charged with entering a combination YMCA and Boy Scout camp at the lake, and the Bear Lake camps of Stanley McConnell of Fredonia, Richard Wang of Stockton, Jack Pierce of Staten Island, and Clifford Pierce. Among articles taken were a canoe, hip boots, and fishing tackle. In addition, they were charged with doing considerable damage to the camps with an axe taken from one of the buildings.

Jack McGolier was arraigned on a charge of burglary before Justice of the Peace A. Roy Perkins. He waived hearing and was ordered held for court. The boy was remanded to the custody of his mother for appearance in Children's Court at Mayville. The arrests were made by Trooper D. W. Hemmer, Bureau of Criminal Investigation, of the New York State Police, and Chautauque County Deputy Donald Zeiser.

MEASLES STILL SERIOUS DISEASE

Measles, contrary to the belief of many, must still be considered a potentially serious disease, according to scientists at one of the country's leading laboratories.

Although, in general, measles is a mild disease, and the immediate mortality from it is very low, complications following in its wake can be extremely severe and long-lasting. For example, bronchopneumonia, lobar-pneumonia, and influenzal pneumonia are relatively common in infants and young children following measles.

According to the scientists, less than 10 per cent of our population escapes this virus-caused disease in early childhood. They also report that measles is often more serious in an adult than in a child.

While measles is of concern among the pre-school group, authorities warn that all persons must be considered susceptible until they have had the disease. (However, most babies born of mothers who have had measles are immune for the first few months of life.) Permanent acquired immunity is usual after recovery from an attack.

Passive immunity, giving immediate but short-lived protection, can be obtained by the introduction of specific antibodies derived from human blood. The product utilized is Immune Serum Globulin, or gamma globulin fraction of plasma. Immune bodies are found in this fraction of plasma of a person after an attack of measles. Injected into the blood of a person who hasn't had measles, this serum gives temporary protection.

Research is under way to develop an attenuated (weakened) live measles vaccine which will give active, long-lasting immunity.

HOLIDAY TRAFFIC DEATHS

Holiday traffic accidents in the last six years have killed half as many Americans as the Korean war, the National Safety Council says.

The five holidays of Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Christmas and New Year's have claimed 8,936 lives since 1946, while the Korean war death toll currently is in excess of 17,000.

The Council also points out that the H-Day (for holiday) traffic toll in the same period was three times that of the Pearl Harbor death toll.

"War is a much nastier business than driving a car, of course," says Ned H. Dearborn, Council president, "and we compare the two only to make the average driver realize that we need an armistice on killing at home, too."

"It is terrible to add up these figures and realize the high price America pays for fun on its holidays. We have a purpose in Korea, but there is no rhyme or reason to the wanton squandering of lives on the highway—especially during holiday celebrations."

The Council estimates that 40,000,000 passenger vehicles will be on the move during the three-day Fourth of July holiday and that they will roll up mileage in the neighborhood of 5,000,000,000 miles.

"Memorial Day this year set a new record for that holiday, when 360 persons were killed," Mr. Dearborn says. "That sounds bad for the Fourth. I'd like to see the Fourth set a record of another kind—a new low in deaths. But it can't be done unless every driver uses extra caution to make up for the extra hazard, which a survey has shown to be about 30 per cent greater than on an average weekend."

"Excessive speed is the principal cause of all fatal traffic accidents. On the Fourth, take your time and you'll have plenty of it to enjoy the holiday."

Considering the fact that the grand and glorious Fourth is little more than a week away, tonight's meeting of the Celebration Committee at the American Legion home looms as the most important of the long series of sessions members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and interested citizens have held. It is important that every committee head and worker be on hand this evening at eight o'clock when final reports will be received and last-minute details decided upon.

That mutual aid demonstration at Sheffield last evening was another splendid demonstration of the wonderful organization the area has in the Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association. The group has proven many times that it is one of the county's greatest assets, and the spectacular performance Monday evening is further proof that our county firemen are prepared to meet any emergency.

Operation Diabolical

Here And There

Warren county will be well represented at the annual outing at Camp Cornplanter for 4-H boys and girls, plans for which were discussed last week by extension leaders and other personnel in a meeting at Smethport. Attending the planning meeting from Warren county were Mary Ayers, assistant extension home economist, and two local leaders, Mrs. Monroe Passinger, Chandler's Valley, and Mrs. Roy Darling, Sugar Grove. 4-H girls will attend Camp Cornplanter August 17 to 20, when a total attendance of 125 or more is expected. Of these about 35 will be from this county. Other 4-H girls will attend from McKean and Cameron counties. From August 21 to 24 the camp will be occupied by 4-H boys from nine counties—Warren, Erie, Crawford, Forest, Venango, Clarion, Elk, McKean and Potter.

Local motorists are receiving their license plates—in miniature—through the mail from the Disabled American Veterans. Since they are sent unsolicited, many feel no obligation to pay for or return the tags. Many others send back a contribution for the "rehabilitation program" of the DAV. The Ident-O-Tag project was started by a commercial firm in Chicago. The DAV, with offices in Cincinnati, paid $62.50 per thousand to the firm, getting all proceeds. In 1945 the DAV took over the concern for a sum of $1,386,500. A former owner was retained at $12,000 a year for seven years, as manager. It operates the project out of Chicago, with 370 employees working. More than 3,000,000 tags were mailed out in 1950. The project grossed $6,074,349 the year ending June 30, 1951. Expenses included $1,876,323 for materials; $894,041 for Chicago salaries; $225,490 for Cincinnati expenses, with the expense total of $3,701,139, which was 61 per cent of income. One item of expense was $1,951 for returning lost keys, a service promised with the tags. Payment of $200,000 on purchase cost of the company also was made. Net to the DAV was $2,167,218. This income is important to the DAV, points out BBB, because it represents about 85 per cent of the organization's yearly income.

Pvt. Paul Dell, of the local barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police, almost qualified as a "mid-wife" last evening when he escorted the Lutz-Verhulst ambulance to a home in the Scandia area for the purpose of bringing an expectant mother to the maternity hospital, only to discover that the stork had arrived ahead of the ambulance. Mother and baby were rushed to the hospital where they are reported doing fine today — as well as Dell!

Potpourri: The first two weeks in August the YWCA will not be serving meals but the Kiwanis club has made arrangements to meet there "as usual" through the cooperation of the Lewis Catering service which will furnish a buffet luncheon for the members on July 2 and 9. Dick Billquist, bookkeeping manager for the Marlin-Rockwell baseball team that is playing home games on Saturdays on the State Hospital diamond this year, was a spectator at the Elks-Business School game last evening and enjoyed it immensely; he was on his way to Tidouste to try and arrange home and home games, on the Fourth. And that reminds us, it will be the Sherman, N. Y., Oshkosh Indians, and not Westfield, as has been rumored, that will furnish the opposition for the Marlin-Rockwell outfit at State next Saturday. The M. R. Over-turf, Main avenue and St. Clair street, are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary by visiting their son and family "down east". Annual field day for the entertainment of patients and employees at the Warren State Hospital has been set for July 11th, with Joe Gardner busily engaged in rounding up the usual interesting program for the hospital family. Plenty of excitement was created in Warren and highways leading to Sheffield Monday night when those fire departments raced to that village for the spectacular demonstration that was witnessed by a crowd that jammed the area throughout the evening; in Warren, through the cooperation of the departments, and well-organized policing the trucks encountered no difficulties whatever at any of the busy intersections.

DOES YOUR IDEA OF UNITY HAVE A MORAL STANDARD?

✓ CHECK
WITH THESE QUESTIONS

NO TWO THUMB PRINTS
ARE THE SAME!

1. DO YOU BELIEVE THAT IN RECEIVING YOUR GIFT OF LIFE FROM GOD, YOU WERE GIVEN DIFFERENT TALENTS AND ABILITIES THAN OTHER PEOPLE... THAT NO TWO PEOPLE ARE ALIKE... THAT YOU WERE GIVEN INDIVIDUALITY? YES.... NO....

2. DO YOU BELIEVE YOU RECEIVE FROM GOD THE LIBERTY TO USE YOUR TALENTS TO WORK AND EARN YOUR OWN LIVING?

YES.... NO....

3. IF SO, DO YOU NOT HAVE A GOD-GIVEN RIGHT TO WHAT YOU EARN AND SAVE - YOUR PROPERTY? FOR ISN'T THE LIBERTY TO USE YOUR TALENTS MERELY AN EXTENSION OF YOUR INDIVIDUALITY? ISN'T YOUR PROPERTY MERELY A RESULT OF THE LIBERTY TO USE YOUR GOD-GIVEN TALENTS? YES.... NO....

LIFE, LIBERTY, THE RIGHT TO PROPERTY - DON'T THESE THREE GIFTS OF GOD PRECEDE ALL MAN-MADE LAWS? AREN'T THEY SUPERIOR TO THEM?
YES.... NO....

WE CAN HAVE UNITY ON A MORAL STANDARD ONLY WHEN THE PEOPLE INSIST THAT OUR GOVERNMENT HAVE A MORAL PURPOSE...

GUIDE TO FREEDOM

JUDGE ALL LAWS BY ASKING THIS QUESTION:-

"DOES THIS LAW PROTECT EVERY INDIVIDUAL IN HIS GOD-GIVEN RIGHT TO LIFE, LIBERTY AND PROPERTY FROM THE INTERFERENCE OF ANY OTHER INDIVIDUAL OR FROM GOVERNMENT ITSELF?"

YOU HAVE a natural right—from God—to protect your Life, Liberty and Property. These three gifts of God were given you with the responsibility for your own existence and you must protect them in order to survive.

So, if a group of men organize and support a common force—a government, this government can have only one purpose—the constant protection of the individual rights of Life, Liberty and Property.

Thus, governments are permitted to use force, but only for this moral purpose—

"TO MAKE AND ENFORCE LAWS WHICH PROTECT EVERY INDIVIDUAL'S GOD-GIVEN LIFE, LIBERTY AND PROPERTY FROM THE INTERFER-ENCE OF ANY OTHER INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP—AND THESE LAWS MUST ALSO PROTECT THE PEOPLE FROM GOVERNMENT ITSELF."

If government uses its power in ways that violate the God-given rights of man, it becomes immoral. For any act that forcibly takes away the God-given rights of any individual is wrong. It makes no difference whether this immoral act is committed by an individual acting alone or by persons who use the force of government for selfish purposes.

Since an individual cannot lawfully use force against the Life, Liberty or Property of another individual, then a moral government cannot lawfully be used to destroy the God-given Life, Liberty or Property of individuals or groups.

—Borg Studio

Before an altar decorated with white glads and carnations in St. Luke's Roman Catholic church in Irvine, Florence Muczynski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Muczynski, Pittsfield, became the bride of Frank Bige, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bige, Latrobe.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 11:00 a. m. Saturday, June 21, by Father Edward Jacobs. Mrs. Velda Papalia played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Dominick Danuski, Mrs. Edward Stec, Mrs. Frank Wawrejko and Mary Kostyal, who sang the nuptial mass, also "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "Ave Maria," "Pater Noster," and "Mother, At Your Feet Is Kneeling."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor length gown styled with high neckline of lace and long, tapering sleeves in a fitted satin bodice, the full skirt of satin falling into a graceful train. Her fingertip veil of illusion net fell from a seed pearl Juliet cap and her only jewelry was the bridegroom's gift of pearls. ed stoles, were of net over taffeta, accented with flower clusters in front and at the sides. All carried colonial bouquets, as did the little flower girl, Janet Muczynski, who wore a long white nylon frock.

Howard Paul, Loyahanna, Pa., was best man for Mr. Bige and ushers were Benny Muczynski, Youngsville; John Omega, Latrobe, and Paul E. Frenchik, Loyahanna. The ring bearer, Richard Muczynski of Youngsville, carried a white satin pillow with shower of lily of the valley streamers.

The bride's mother chose a light blue dress and Mrs. Bige wore black and white, each with black accessories and corsage of red roses.

Let Your House Guests Shine While You Provide Background

To insure the success of a party in your own home, keep the following do's and don'ts in mind:

Do choose your guests with the same care you combine colors in a room—considering their effect upon each other.
Don't decide that you will have a certain number of guests and then fill the number even though it means dragging in a guest who doesn't really fit in with the others.
Do have some ideas in mind before the party starts of things you can do if your guests begin to seem bored or restless half way through the evening. But don't hesitate to discard your own ideas if the guests come up with better ones.
Do pay special attention to the shy guest, but not so obviously that he will feel you have noticed his shyness.

SUCCESSFUL HOSTESS FOLLOWS RULES UNCONSCIOUSLY

DON'T take any verbal cracks at anyone not present. It will make your guests feel ill-at-ease to discover that their hostess has a critical attitude toward others and a sharp tongue.
Don't talk poor-mouth. The hostess who talks "poor" makes her guests feel that they are a burden.
Don't be a show-off at your own party. Let your guests shine and you provide the background. When a man says to his wife on the way home from a party: "That was a nice evening, wasn't it?" chances are he is remembering that he had a chance to shine, not that his hostess was fascinating.
All successful hostesses may not keep these pointers in mind, but the ones who don't usually follow them unconsciously, because they have an instinctive feeling for people and how to make them have a good time.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Will Gibson, Pleasant township, who will be celebrating their golden wedding day on Wednesday, June 25, were honored guests Sunday afternoon for an open house given at their home by their only daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Palmer, who was assisted by Mrs. Vance Weld.

The guest list of about 150 persons included relatives and friends, from Cleveland and Akron, O.; Appalachian, Olean and Jamestown, N. Y.; Meadville, Pittsburgh, Franklin and the home vicinity. The celebrants were presented with a beautiful chair and a purse of money, among their many gifts. Decorations for the tea table were done in gold and white, using a three-tier anniversary cake, mock orange blossoms and tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were married in Jamestown, N. Y., but have lived in Warren and Pleasant township all their married lives. Mr. Gibson is a well known contractor and builder, now retired, and he and his wife are both actively associated with the First Presbyterian church and the Pleasant Grange. They have, besides their daughter, four grandchildren, Trudy, Mary, Joan and Bill Palmer, all in attendance for the happy anniversary event.

This party marked the sixth golden wedding observance held in Mrs. Gibson's family, the previous celebrants having been her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Unangst, Meadville; her two brothers and two sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Unangst, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Unangst, Cochran; Mrs. Ada Meister and her husband, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walker, Akron.

Deadline Is Set For Reunion Reservations

Announcement is made today by the committee that all reservations for the WBS Class of '43 reunion, to be held on Saturday, must be in the hands of the chairman, Leon Christiansen, no later than 5:00 p. m. Wednesday.

Anyone who has not yet returned his reply card should do so today or call Miss Georgia Spinney at Warren Public Library, 1085. Those who cannot make the dinner at 6:00 p. m. are welcome to attend any of the activities in the afternoon or evening but should still call in the number of people they will bring along. Children are welcome and there will be games provided for them.

GUEST SPEAKER AT WSCS GATHERING

A rare treat is in store for women attending the First Methodist WSCS meeting at 6:00 p. m. Thursday in Founders Hall of the church. The gathering will be in the form of a tureen dinner, all attending to bring tureen, table service and bread, the coffee and dessert to be provided by the committee.

Miss Doris Bloomer, Sugar Grove, will be the guest speaker. Miss Bloomer was recently graduated from Scarritt College, a Methodist school for missionaries, and will soon go to the Navajo Indian field in New Mexico. Since she has worked with these people before her entrance into college, she is well informed and her talk will be well worth hearing.

"THE CHOCOLATIERS" COMING FOR THE CELEBRATION: One of the outstanding drum and bugle corps units that will appear in Warren for the parade and competition July Fourth will be "The Chocolaters," sponsored by the Hershey American Legion Post No. 386. This corps, considered one of the best in the country, and making its first appearance in Warren, was organized in 1928, composed of World War I veterans. They were active throughout Pennsylvania participating in parades and celebrations up until 1942 when they were temporarily disbanded due to World War II. In 1946 the Corps was reorganized and took the name "The Chocolaters." They have a membership of 40 men over fifty per cent being veterans of World War

II. The Corps has won the Pennsylvania State American Legion Class "C" Championship three times in the last four years. They were strictly a street Corps up until 1951 when they entered field competition for the first time in the "Pen-Mar Drum and Bugle Corps Circuit." This Circuit has Corps who are State and runner-up National Champions in Eastern Pennsylvania and Maryland. The "Chocolaters" under the able direction of Ellis Greene in both music and drilling have made great strides forward in field competition. They are a self supporting organization with every man's ambition this summer to collect more honors to take home. This Corps will appear in the parade in the morning, and will compete in the Class A contest at War Memorial Field in the afternoon.

Nationwide Publicity For Two Sylvania Men

Two local Sylvania employees, Glenn Ruhlman and Robert King were recently given honors in "Bootstraps," a publication of the International Correspondence Schools, according to L. E. Johnson, Warren representative. This publication has a readership of 165,000 throughout this country and Canada.

The article includes a picture of Messrs. King and Ruhlman receiving this award.

The $4200 award was given for best suggestion ever submitted in the fifty-year history of Sylvania Electric Products, Inc. The award covered improvement of a follower blade.

Glenn Ruhlman enrolled in 1944 for the I. C. S. Machine Shop and Tool Making course. He plans to use his award to enlarge a home workshop he has in his garage.

Bob King, having completed an I. C. S. course in Mechanical Drafting before entering service is now working on a second course, Mechanical Engineering.

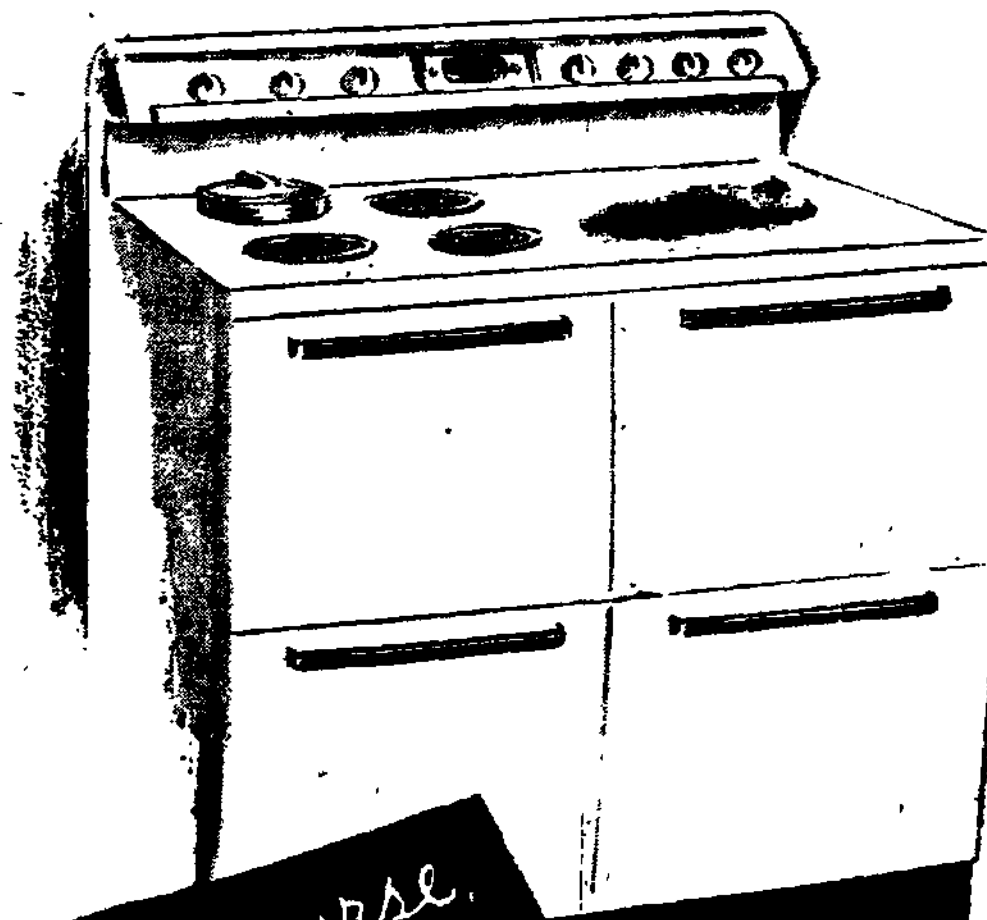

Presentation of the award check was made by General Manager R.

J. Hartung, of Sylvania's parts division and Thomas Gannoe, General Superintendent of Machine Shop.

The discovery of quartz gold at Butter Creek, Calif., led to the bonanza which made many great fortunes in the West.

Business College Claims Nine Hits To Beat Elks, 8-3

Nine hits off three pitchers, including a round-tripper by Lopez, the one man on, gave the Warren Business School an 8 to 3 victory over the Elks in a Sunset League game played at State Hospital last evening. Starting for the Elks, Hines was clobbered for five in two-thirds of an inning and as derelict for Christensen, who led the Business boys for 3 1/3 frames before relinquishing to Thompson, who went the last two innings.

Falvo went the distance for the Elks, giving up only four hits and two walks.

All Miksis Asked Was Chance; Made Cubs When He Got One

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—That young fellow who takes charge of the Cubs' infield spent the greater part of a half-dozen seasons sitting in the Dodgers' dugout.

"By 1950 it got so bad I was ashamed to take my pay check," says Edward Thomas Miksis, now one of the superior players of a reformed ball player making good at the first opportunity.

All the Burlington, N. J., had asked was a chance, and he made the Chicago Nationals the baseball story of the year when he got it.

Miksis, only 25 now, was eyeing the Bruins when he swapped to them, June 15 of last year, together with Hermanski, Bruce Edwards and Hatten for Pafko, Rube Walker, Schmitz and Terwilliger.

"I was not used in the outfield again after misjudging a fly that cost a run in the 1947 World Series," he recalls. "The Brooklyn front office told me I had reached the limit at the paymaster's window as a utility infielder."

Miksis, a sizable chap standing six feet one-half inch and weighing 182 pounds, holds nothing against the Brooklyn club and the three managers under whom he served—Durocher, Shotton and Dressen—for not making more use of him.

BRANCH RICKEY, then president of the Brooks, went to great lengths to land Miksis, then 17, when Cliff Case signed the lad for Trenton of the Inter-State League in 1944. Rickey arranged a working agreement with the Trenton club to obtain the shortstop.

Finishing the season with the Dodgers in 1944, Leo Durocher gave him a day off so he could pick up his high school diploma.

Then he went into the Navy for 22 months.

Miksis recalls Clyde Sukeforth being at the New York discharge center when he got out of the Navy, July 11, 1946.

With the Dodgers, Miksis did everything but pitch. He even caught batting practice.

The Cubs won't waste Miksis at any place except second base, except when Roy Smalley is hurt, when he is also one of the shicker shortstops.

If the Brooklyn club knew what it had, the management didn't know what to do with Eddie Miksis.

Most Clubs Boast Candidate or Two For Rookie Award

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Who's going to win the Rookie of the Year award this year? It's a wide-open race with practically every club in both big leagues boasting at least one outstanding candidate.

Sammy White, Eddie Mathews and Bob Nieman, a trio of first year "phenoms" laid solid claim to this honor yesterday, coming through with noteworthy performance.

White, 23-year-old Boston catcher, banged out three hits and drew a walk in four times at bat to lead the Red Sox to a 12-6 victory over the Detroit Tigers. Sammy struck his fifth homer of the season in the third inning followed with a pair of singles in a big 11-run fourth to drive in four runs.

Mathews, the fuzz-faced third six all, where it remained until the last of the 10th for a one-run victory for the home team.

Interest Jumps As Robinson - Maxim Fight Is Postponed

By MURRAY ROSE

New York (AP)—Fresh money poured in on Sugar Ray Robinson today and there were indications that the middleweight king may be favored as high as 8 to 5 when he goes swinging for Light Heavyweight Champion Joey Maxim's crown in Yankee Stadium Wednesday night.

The so-called "smart" bettors laid it on the line in big batches of green yesterday after an all-day drizzle forced postponement of the battle of champions from last night to Wednesday.

When the undercover wagering closed down last night, the sleek, poised middleweight champ had jumped from even money to the role of favorite at 7 to 5.

The boys apparently believe Maxim will lose his edge in the (Turn to Page Ten) two-day delay. The swarthy, 30-year-old Clevelander tipped the beam at 174½ yesterday at the official weigh-in and he'll have to make 175 pounds or less again by 11:30 a. m. Wednesday. Robinson scaled 160 and said he expected to hit close to that again Wednesday.

Yet the general feeling was that the dark-haired, 6-foot-1 champion had come out a loser in the setback.

Petroleum Official From Here Attends Washington Meet

(Special to the Times-Mirror)
Washington, D. C.—L. C. Gilson, of the Commerce Oil Company (Warren Bank and Trust Company Building), Warren, Pa., participated here over the weekend in a meeting with fellow-members of the petroleum lubricants export advisory committee and officials of the Office of International Trade, U. S. Department of Commerce.
This was the committee's first meeting with OIT and the Warren executive and his associates were advised by OIT that complete information on end-use of U. S. exports is being obtained from foreign customers more quickly through the use of forms recently developed by OIT.
OIT reminded the Warren man that, beginning July 1, use of one of the new forms, IT-843, will be mandatory for end-use statements on goods covered by recurring orders from the same consignee. For single export transactions, the end-use statements may be submitted either on the other new form, IT-842, or in a letter or other written form.
The 18-man group, including the Warren executive, favored a proposal by OIT to simplify the special provisions for export license applications covering petroleum lubricants. At present, exporters are requested to give detailed data on the characteristics and quality of the lubricating oils and greases covered by their application.
In some cases, they are also required to submit information on their customers' stocks of lubricants, the quantity available to them from other sources, and their monthly rate of consumption.

A Belated Thank You

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to industries of Warren County and the public for their wonderful cooperation in our recent Chest X-Ray Survey.
We especially wish to thank the following ladies of Warren County: Mrs. No. 405, Eight and Forty, who assisted at the X-Ray Unit on Liberty Street; Hazel Witz, Marion McMillen, Medna Cannon, Hazel Patchen and Myrna Loomis. These ladies are interested in the care and treatment of tuberculosis in juveniles.
Our thanks to the Borough Police set-ups, and to the Pennsylvania Electric Company for the use of their office and facilities.

The Warren Times - Mirror and Radio Station WNAE were most generous with advertising and publicity.
6,010 persons were x-rayed—the largest number in any one year since we began our surveys. Approximately three weeks after the completion of the survey individual reports are in the mail along with reports to the doctors listed on the registration cards.
This entire survey was made possible by YOUR purchase of the well known CHRISTMAS SEALS. Again we say "THANK YOU!" Warren County Tuberculosis Society, sponsored by Warren Lions Club.

U. S. export of strategic goods to 10 western European countries, a few of the committee members said they are finding it necessary to submit ultimate consignee statements in place of import certification, witnessed by the foreign governments. Some of their western European customers have reported delays in obtaining import certification, they explained.
The committee was told an OIT official is now in Europe to discuss various phases of the new procedure with representatives of the cooperating governments.
Discussing the problem of special handling of license applications for emergency shipments, OIT officials reported about 3,000 applications are received each day for lubricants and all other commodities.
Presiding at the meeting was Lester M. Carson, director of OIT's petroleum division.

Tips on Attaining Lower Temperature Offered by Official

The average home in Warren County can be made considerably more comfortable on hot days and nights this summer by adopting one or more of six relatively simple and inexpensive methods of eliminating excessive heat, according to George B. King, Tidloite lumber and building materials dealer and member of the Public Affairs Committee of the National Lumber Dealers Association.
"The temperature inside the home can be kept from rising to the sweltering point with proper insulation and shade control, while oppressive heat can be expelled from the house with the aid of better ventilation," Mr. King said.
"Suitable insulating materials installed on side walls and between roof or floor joints on the top floor will keep temperatures from rising too high inside the house while the hot sun is beating down.
"In addition, interior heat can be controlled by keeping windows closed and excluding direct rays of the sun with shades or venetian blinds or by installing awnings on the sunny side of the house.
"Open windows or louvers at either end of the space between the roof and top floor will permit the escape of heated air which often rises well above 100 degrees on really hot days and continues to heat the rooms below if it is confined there after the sun goes down.
"When the inside temperature becomes uncomfortable despite these precautions and there is no breeze to cool the house, the heat can be expelled night or day with ventilating fans properly placed and operated in a window or in an opening in the ceiling just under the roof.
"In some homes, ventilation can be improved by replacing small windows with larger ones, by replacing fixed windows with a type which can be opened, or by adding windows in rooms which do not have cross ventilation.
"Anyone wishing even lower temperatures than are obtained by these methods can, of course, install an air cooling system."

Strange Passage
By William Lynch
Chapter Seven
AT THE southern end of the playground, beyond the high wire fence there is a cavity in the earth called Wade's Hole and no one has ever thought to fill in this great hole and bring it level with the ground. It is fully two hundred feet deep, as deep as the foundations of the Bridge approaches—of which it was apparently a part—and the diameter at the top is a matter of thirty yards. It is an ugly, gaping useless hole, with precipitous sides that yawn down to the quagmire at the bottom, and this is the only entry to the cavity and there is no way out of it. So in the years of the playground Wade's Hole has been a potential death-trap.
Tonight Wade's Hole was deserted save for the figure of Paul Gardiner, who came down after nightfall and sat on the ledge, his legs dangling into the cavity and cool against the damp clay of the walls and his face upturned to a southerly breeze.
Chain lightning bit into the black void and wrenched out great pieces of it. Presently, flakey spats of rain pattered down but ceased before the grey surface dust had even moistened its parched lips. It was a night for storm and thinking.
It was important to remember as you sat here on the edge of death that since Melisande and the marriage everything that had gone before was null and void: that the past was bad and only the present and the future were Very Good.
You had to cast out the proto-plasms of yourself—when—youth walking back again and again through the same door wherein you went the first time and not caring much about where the door led to.
It was two o'clock in the morning by the College clock and the dormitory was dead quiet. The diminutive figure detached itself from the floor shadows and stole into the locker room. Within ten minutes the College was but a grey blur behind the pattering, urgent feet—a grey blur perched high on a wing-swept hill. He plucked out towards the town, and towards noon he came to the cherry orchard and a lady came towards him smiling and after a little talk she took him into the house and fed him on oatmeal and fried eggs and tea, and that was extra good. It was "the season" then and they gave him a ladder and a bucket and told him to go ahead and pick cherries and the pay was ninepence a bucket. The trees were grey and silver under the thawing frost and the air came up sharply through the nostrils and smelled of fresh green leaves and dry leaves burning.
The Police came and took him back to the College. The President waited until the Police left and then there was the shame of the President's study, with himself kneeling on the ground and feeling the pain and ignominy of a length of harness trace hot and angry upon his neck and back and buttocks until the tears flowed red-hot down his cheeks and he fell forward on his face, completely unconscious.
An icy wave of resentment surged over him as he continued to trace, fragment by fragment, the pattern of circumstances that had foreshadowed every major event of his youth—beginning with the orphanage and the smug, criminal ignorance and bewine stupidity of the Child Welfare Department—and the permanent irritant known as "boarding out."
Mr. Grey was a returned soldier and he broke horses for a living. On the days when there were no horses to break he usually worked in the barn with the boarded-out boy. Mr. Grey suffered from shell shock, and there were days when it was good for his nerves to go into the barn and cut chaff for a few hours. The thing was for the boarded-out boy to stay outside the barn and snail behind the horse with a stick so that the horse would keep walking around in a circle at the end of the pole that drove the chaff-cutter, whilst Mr. Grey stayed inside the barn and fed the chaff into the cutter, which was the thing that was good for his shell-shock. One day while the boarded-out boy was following the horse around, the horse suddenly began to jog-trot, and before he could get it back to a slow walk the driving shaft

IT HAPPENED during WORLD WAR II
"In the early days of World War II it was learned that shockingly large numbers of Selective Service men were failing to pass physical fitness tests. Investigations by Medical and Nutritional authorities soon revealed that this was due to certain vitamin and mineral deficiencies in the American diet.
Realizing the national scope of this problem, the foremost government, military, nutritional and medical authorities met with the millers and bakers of America in 1941. At this meeting it was decided that since bread was the most universally accepted food, it was logical that bread should be enriched with these important vitamins and minerals. Since that time every homemaker has learned the importance of enriched bread to the welfare of her family.
During recent years much thought has been given to, and progress made in, improving the national diet and the enrichment of bread is considered the most important nutritional achievement. One of the most recent recommendations made by the Nutritional authorities is the addition of Vitamin D and extra amounts of calcium to enriched bread. Ever alert to provide the best in nutrition, Anderson's Baking Company complied with this recommendation and added Vitamin D and extra calcium to their bread formula. This forward step entitled this progressive bakery to use the name super-enriched to identify this superior enrichment which actually provides 30% more vitamins and minerals than ordinary enriched bread.
Although Anderson's Super-Enriched bread supplies basic food values to develop and maintain adult bodies, it is especially good for growing children because it contains the elements that help to build strong bones and teeth, good red blood and steady nerves. Anderson's is the only bakery in this area offering Super-Enriched bread. It is delivered fresh every day to food stores.
